WILLING TO SELL.

Decmark has formally communi t d to the United States her willingness to accept the terms offered by Secretary Hay for her three West India jelande.

Minister Brun, her diplomatic re-presentative in Washington, called at the State department yesterday at resoon and communicated this intelligence to Secretary Hay. The report from Copenhagen that the t eaty will be signed today is in error. Minister Brun has not yet received the full powers which he must have in order t oign the treaty. These will come within the next few days, and then the ceremony of signing will occur.

A few days ago the outlook for effecting the treaty was rather gloomy, in view of the announcement made by the Danish government that before it could be consist to dispose of the islands as consent to dispose of the islands a plebisoitum must be held to determine the atilitude of the inhabitsois.

Secretary Hay statid that the United tites could have nothing to do with such procedure. This government desired to acquire the islands and was prepared to make liberal terms, but it could only pregutate with the Danish could only negctiate with the Danish government, and not with its subject. It is understood that a plebiscitum will be held, but it will take place after instead of before the algusture of the treaty, and the convention in order to be effective must receive the approval of the majority of the inhabitants. As the treaty must receive the ratification of the United States Sense, this government, it is stated, can have no objection to the submission of the instru-ment to the Danish Islands for confirm The State department declines to make public the trenty sgreed upon. The price is said to be between three and four million dollars. Minister Brun sought to induce Secretary Hay t) accept provisions giving the inhabicitizens of the United States and the tariff concessions. Both these matters are, however, for Congress to deter-mine and the treaty will simply accord WOMAN MURDERED .-Allen, wife of James Allen, was found murdered at 12:30 o'clock yesterday on Cottage Avenue, White Plains, N. Y. within 500 feet of her home. At 6 o'clock Wednesday morning Mrs. Allen o'clock Wednesday morning Mrs. Alleu left her home to go to the residence of Mrs. Thomas A. Leggo, where she worked by the day, always returning to her home at night. When see did not return at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening her husband, James Allen, and her eldest daughter oegan an unavailher eldest daughter began an unavailing search. Nothing was learned of the missing woman until 12:30, yesterday, when Eugene Harders, a youth, stopped at the residence of August Souberg to leave some groceries. The street is narrow, and the boy backed bis delivery wagon up in making a turn to go back. He says the wagon bumped up against something. He looked out and saw the body of a woman lying within five feet of the road, in a small clump of bushes next to a stone wall. There was a large cash in the left cheek, and the entire tace of the woman was out and bruised beyond recognition, All evidence seems to show that Mrs. Allen had been first nit with some weapon, knocked insensible, and robbed of her pocketbook.

SENATOR CLARK A MYSTERY, -Senever William A. Clark of Montana is still a mystery to W shington people, because they cannot find out what he thends to do socially. Soon a tor being elected he purchased Stewart Casteon Dupont Circle from his old-time mining friend, Senator thwart of Nevads, had the "Castle" torn down, and has eversince left the highole in the ground unimproved. It is probably the finest building site left in Washington, and the Senators lives in a rented nouse adjoining the vacant lot. It is said that he has an option upon his property and that he intends to purchase and then erect a mansion that will surpass in elegance the one now being built for Thomas F. Walsh of Colorado, just one corner below. Sena-tor Clark is all the more interesting as he is a widower. He has been living very quietly during the winter, but has now attracted some a tention by bringing over from Paris a new $8,000 steam automobile the exact pat ern of the one used by Edward VII. The machine will seat ten persons, has a maximum horse power of 24, and is capable of great speed.
